Read the following narrative

When I came to my cave (which I called my castle), I ran inside it as if I was being chased. I don't remember whether I used the ladder or went by the hole in the rock, which I called the door. I ran for cover faster than any animal could run.

I did not sleep that night. The more I thought about what I had seen, the more afraid I was I thought it could be one of the savages of the mainland who had wandered out to the sea, in a small boat.

Task – I

5M

- 1 Who does 'I' refer to?
- 2 What was the writer's castle?
- 3 How did he go inside his house?
- 4 Which was called by the writer, the door?
5. Who might be the unknown person according to the writer's thoughts?
